

ITE Washington Safety Training & Conference, January 12, 2021

Agenda

8:30-10:00am Opening Session

- ITE Welcome – Claudia Hirschey, ITE-WA Past President
- Safety Committee Welcome – Gary Norris, ITE-WA Safety Committee Chair
- Back to the Past: Recap of Previous Topics
 - Safety in SEPA – Claudia Hirschey
 - Video Safety Analytics – Franz Lowenherz, City of Bellevue
 - Multi-modal Traffic Analysis – Chris Comeau, City of Bellingham
- Washington Traffic Safety Commission Update – Shelly Baldwin, WTSC
- Keynote Address – Juliet Little, President, National Association of Women Highway Safety Leaders

10:00—10:30am Optional Breakout Rooms for Networking

10:30am—12:00pm Speed Limit Setting for Safety

Moderator: Darcy Akers, City of Bellevue

- New Tools and Methods for Speed Limit Setting – Brian Chandler, DKS Associates
- Applying New Speed Limit Research to Arterials – Kendra Dedinsky, City of Shoreline
- Revised Speed Limit Policy for Rural Roads – Nikki Davis, Island County

1:00—1:20pm Optional Breakout Rooms for Networking

1:20—1:30pm 2021 Installation of ITE-WA Officers

1:30—3:00pm Pedestrian Safety

Moderator: Gary Norris, DN Consultants

- Pedestrian Safety Problem Statement – Gary Norris
- Unique Application of Traffic Control Devices for Bikes and Peds – Dongho Chang, City of Seattle
- Criteria for Pedestrian Treatments – Ejaz Khan, Clark County
- Pedestrian Level Lighting – Caroline Brabrook, Michael Baker

3:00-3:15pm Concluding Remarks

Robert Shull, Eco Resource Management Systems